*God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be.
He wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered "Come with me" She suffered much in silence, her spirit did not bend.
She faced her pain with courage, until the very end.
She tried so hard to stay with us and we saw her fade away Although we loved you dearly we could not make you stay A golden heart stopped beating but you never went alone, for part of us went with you the day you left your home*
